In your entrepreneur journal, write down how “outspending your stupidity” relates back to our previous lessons, and also why it is not smart.

Hint: Think back to the concept of managing expenses in order to be financially sustainable

The responsibility of an entrepreneur

As the leader of your company, your employees and other workers look up to you.

During times of crisis, it is your duty to step up, and lead your company back into success.

Sometimes, many problems can be avoided. With proper organization and strong leadership, you can avoid having financial difficulties.

Other times, some problems are unavoidable. The next lesson will cover how an entrepreneur can get out of financial hardship when faced with overwhelming problems.

The importance of leadership
