Types of Investments Related to Stocks

Normal Stock - a stock of a normal company. An example would include a FAANG stock

Index Fund - a fund that invests in a specific list of securities. Examples include the S&P 500 and Dow & Jones

Mutual Fund - a fund that invests in a changing list of securities. Examples include FTEKX, and other funds by companies like Fidelity and Vanguard

Exchange Traded Fund - think of this like a stock that invests in other securities. The best example is Berkshire Hathaway.
